Senators Andrews, Chantry, Eaton, Garst, Green, Harmon, Hurst, Perry, Phelps, Upton, Yeomans—11.

So the bill passed and the title was agreed to.

Senator Groneweg offered the following explanation of his vote:

MR. PRESIDENT—Believing that this bill, House file No. 324, is more calculated to protect dishonest debtors than the honest laboring man, and further believing that if enacted into law it will bring no good results to the State, I therefore vote "no."

WM. GRONEWEG,
Senator Nineteenth District.

House file No. 45, a bill for an act conferring upon women the right to vote in certain cases, was taken up and considered.

Senator Carpenter moved that the bill be read a third time now.

Senator Carpenter moved the previous question.

Upon this the yeas and nays were demanded.

On the question, "Shall the main question be now put?" the yeas were:

Senators Andrews, Boardman, Carpenter, Chantry, Cheshire, Everall, Finn, Funk, Harper, Harsh, Henderson, Jamison, Kilburn, Lewis, Penrose, Perrin, Phelps, Reynolds, Rowen, Turner, Vale—21.

The nays were:

So the bill passed and the title was agreed to.

Senator Rea offered the following explanation of his vote:

MR. PRESIDENT—Believing that this bill, if it becomes a law, is a violation of the constitution of the State, and fearing that it will unsettle the status of school and municipal bonds, and render their negotiation more difficult, I am compelled, without any discussion upon the question, to vote "no."

J. M. REA.
